G G
Take out your favourite gal --- and your best friend's four-eyed pal

G C
To a treat right down the street that's dynamite

C C
Let your conscience be your guide --- if you put your foot inside

C7 F
You wish you left your well enough alone

F C A7
When you got hell to pay --- put the truth on layaway and

D G C
Blame it on that ol' crazy bone

F C
Crazy bone (crazy bone), crazy bone (crazy bone)

D7 G G A Bb B
You wish you left your well enough alone

F C A7
When you got hell to pay --- put the truth on layaway

D G C
And blame it on that ol' crazy bone

C C
Don't be stuck in Alaska --- when you could be in Nebraska

C G G A Bb B
On a Thursday when it's egg and daughter night

G G
When the farmers come to town --- and they spread them eggs around

G C
And they drop their daughters down at the roller rink

C C
Well, you're probably standing there --- with your slicked-back Brylcreem hair

C7 F
Your Luckys and your daddy's fine-tooth comb

^F
If they knew what you were thinking --- ^C they'd run you out of ^{A7} Lincoln

^D ^G ^C
Just blame it on that ol' crazy bone

^F ^C
Crazy bone (crazy bone), crazy bone (crazy bone)

^{D7} ^G ^G ^A ^{Bb} ^B
Well you must have left your wisdom tooth at home
