Verse 2:

How many insects find their home in an English country garden?
I'll tell you now of some that I know and those I miss you'll surely pardon.
Dragonflies, moths and bees, spiders falling from the trees
Butterflies sway in the mild, gentle breeze,
There are hedgehogs that roam and little gnomes, in an English country garden.

Verse 3:

How many songbirds make their nests in an English country garden?
I'll tell you now of some that I know and those I miss you'll surely pardon.
Babbling coo, cooing doves, robins and the warbling thrush
Bluebird, lark, finch and nightingale.
We all smile in the spring, when the birds all start to sing
In an English country garden.
