

Zimmermann Blues

Ralph McTell; key of G

Intro: G G

G Am F C D7 D7
I get a little sadness now just now and then

G Am F C D7 D7
It comes to remind me, what it was like when

[C D] [G C G]
I was out on that road

[C D7] [G C] D7 D7
Happy, hungry and cold first you win and then you lose

[Em C] [D7 G]
Oh, Lord, I got the Zimmerman blues

[Em C] [D7 G] G
Oh, Lord, I got the Zimmerman blues

G Am F C D7 D7
Don't get me money now, if it's bad for my head

G Am F C D7 D7
You can keep the honey now, put something else on the bread

[C D] [G C G]
To lose all them old time friends

[C D7] [G C] D7 D7
who missed how they were making it end And we all wound up confused

[Em C] [D7 G]
That's what you call the Zimmerman blues

[Em C] [D7 G] G
That's what you call the Zimmerman blues.

G Am F C D7 D7
Do a concert for Angela, build a building or two

G Am F C D7 D7
It gets harder for me, but easier for you

[C D] [G C G]
As sure as the stars turn above

[C D7] [G C] D7 D7
All we ever asked for was love And I think that we've all been used

[Em C] [D7 G]
Ending up with the Zimmerman blues

[Em C] [D7 G]
Ending up with the Zimmerman blues

G Am F C D7 D7
I get a little sadness now, just now and then.

G Am F C D7 D7
It comes to remind me, when I called you a friend

[C D] [G C G]
So where do we go from here?

[C D7] [G C] D7 D7
For me it won't ever get that near and if it did I know what I would choose

[Em C] [D7 G]
Anything but the Zimmerman blues

[Em C] [D7 G]
Anything but the Zimmerman blues
